

Monday 03-07-2023	Tuesday 04-07-2023	Wednesday 05-07-2023	Thursday 06-07-2023	Friday 07-07-2023
Normative underpinning for priorities and allocation of health resources: an individual perspective	Normative underpinning for priorities and allocation of health resources: a global perspective	Diversity & women in global health	Migration and mental health	From colonial medicine to planetary health: the past and future of globalised medicine
Individual perspective	Global perspective	1. Diversity 2. Women	1. Migration 2. Mental health	1. Decolonization of global health 2. Environmental health 3. Planetary health
E. Engebretsen & S. Tubeuf	E. Engebretsen & S. Tubeuf	M. Prina and JP. Empana	M. Prina and C. Morberg	P. Grosse and A. Buha
Introduction: 9am-10am Morning session: 10am-12pm Health inequalities, inequities and inequalities of opportunities Dilemma session 1 (E. Engebretsen and S. Tubeuf): Uncovering normative principles in resource allocation Lecture 1 (S. Tubeuf): From health inequalities to inequalities of opportunities in health Afternoon session: 2pm-5pm Responsibility in health and health care Lecture 2 (JP Empana): Individual empowerment in health care: the example of cardiovascular disease (JP Empana) Critical discussion 2 (E. Engebretsen and S. Tubeuf):	Morning session: 9am-12pm Global governance for health Dilemma session 2 (E. Engebretsen and S. Tubeuf): Responsibility and empowerment Lecture 3 (E. Engebretsen): Empowerment and partnership in global governance for health Afternoon session: 2pm-5pm Global health institutions Critical discussion 2 (Lara Tavošchi): From global public health agenda to local implementation Practical session (E. Engebretsen): Analysing	Morning session: 9 am – 12pm Diversity in global health Lecture 1 : (Unpacking) Diversity in global health: differences, vulnerabilities and challenges: L Tavošchi Controversy (chairs & students): Sexual orientation and cardiovascular health: JP Empana Group discussion : prepared in advance by the students Afternoon session: 2pm-5pm women in global health Lecture 2 : women's health in a changing world (TBC) In person Controversy (chairs & students): Women's career in global health () In person	Morning session: 9am-12pm Migrations in global health Lecture 3 : When Global Health becomes local health – migrant health in diverse populations: C Morberg Controversy (chairs & students): Are migrant's impaired access to health services self-imposed or a relevant consequences of strict immigration laws? C Morberg Group discussion : prepared in advance by the students Afternoon session: 2pm-5pm mental health in global health Lecture 4 : mental health across cultures (TBC) Controversy (chairs & students): depression in diverse settings: a	Morning session: 9am-12pm The colonial pasts of global health Lecture 1 : The colonial pasts of global health (P Grosse) Group discussion : Are all colonial traditions in Global Health universal, or are there national characteristics? (Initiated and mediated by P Grosse) Controversy : How can global health be decolonized? (Initiated by P Grosse) *Maybe GP's colleague will prepare some pre-recorded material in advance to spark the discussion Afternoon session: 2pm-4:30pm From environmental medicine to planetary health Lecture 2 : Environment and Global Health: challenges and pitfalls (A Buha)

Philosophical viewpoint on responsibility in health 7pm Welcome cocktail with professors	discourse of global health institutions (E. Engebretsen)	Group discussion: prepared in advance by the students 5:30pm Social activity TBC	common disorder or medicalisation of unhappiness ? (TBC/M Prina) Group discussion: prepared in advance by the students 5:30pm Social activity TBC 7pm: Restaurant Diner	Group discussion: Environmental determinants of global health (Initiated and mediated by A Buha) Controversy: Is planetary health the future of global health? (pre-recorded material from P Grosse's colleague to spark the discussion and then mediated by P Grosse and A Buha)
--	--	---	---	--

- 1h lunch break everyday
- Present your research activity =during lunch break

*Programme may be subject to minor changes

* More guest speakers to be announced

More info:

<https://www.circle-u.eu/>

<https://u-paris.fr/en/circle-u-summer-schools/>