

	DAY 1	DAY 2	DAY 3	DAY 4	DAY 5
Title	Normative underpinning for priorities and allocation of health resources: an individual perspective	Normative underpinning for priorities and allocation of health resources: a global perspective	Diversity & women in global health	Migration and mental health	From colonial medicine to planetary health: the past and future of globalised medicine
Topics	Individual perspective	Global perspective	1. Diversity 2. Women	1. Migration 2. Mental health	1. Decolonization of global health 2. Environmental health 3. Planetary health
Chairs :	E. Engebretsen & S. Tubeuf	E. Engebretsen & S. Tubeuf	M. Prina and JP. Empana	Matthew and Christian	Pascal and Aleksandra
Programme	Morning session: Health inequalities, inequities and inequalities of opportunities Dilemma session 1 (E. Engebretsen and S. Tubeuf): Uncovering normative principles in resource allocation Lecture 1 (S. Tubeuf) : From health inequalities to inequalities of opportunities in health Afternoon session: Responsibility in health and health care Lecture 2 (JP Empana) : Individual empowerment in health care : the example of cardiovascular disease (JP Empana) Critical discussion 2 (E. Engebretsen and S. Tubeuf): Philosophical viewpoint on responsibility in health	Morning session: Global governance for health Dilemma session 2 (E. Engebretsen and S. Tubeuf): Responsibility and empowerment Lecture 3 (E. Engebretsen) : Empowerment and partnership in global governance for health Afternoon session: Global health institutions Critical discussion 2 (Lara Tavošči): From global public health agenda to local implementation Practical session (E. Engebretsen): Analysing discourse of global health institutions (E. Engebretsen)	Morning session: Diversity in global health (L. Tavošči & JP Empana) Lecture 1: (Unpacking) Diversity in global health: differences, vulnerabilities and challenges : L Tavošči Controversy (chairs & students): Sexual orientation and cardiovascular health: JP Empana Group discussion: prepared in advance by the students Afternoon session: women in global health (M. Prina & B. Matejic) Lecture 2: women's health in a changing world (S Paphitis, King's College) Controversy (chairs & students): Women's career in global health (B Matejic)	Morning session: Migrations in global health C Morberg. Lecture 3: When Global Health becomes local health – migrant health in diverse populations: C Morberg Controversy (chairs & students): Are migrant's impaired access to health services self-imposed or a relevant consequences of strict immigration laws? C Morberg Group discussion: prepared in advance by the students Afternoon session: mental health in global health (M. Prina & M. Abas) Lecture 4: mental health across cultures (M Abas, King's College) Controversy (chairs & students): depression in diverse settings: a common	Morning session: The colonial pasts of global health (P Grosse) Lecture 1: The colonial pasts of global health (P Grosse) Group discussion: Are all colonial traditions in Global Health universal, or are there national characteristics? (Initiated* and mediated by P Grosse) Controversy: How can global health be decolonized? (Initiated by P Grosse) *Maybe GP's colleague will prepare some pre-recorded material in advance to spark the discussion Afternoon session lecture: From environmental medicine to planetary health (A Buha) Lecture 2: Environment and Global Health: challenges and pitfalls (A Buha)

			Group discussion: prepared in advance by the students	disorder or medicalisation of unhappiness ? (M Abas/M Prina) Group discussion: prepared in advance by the students	Group discussion: Environmental determinants of global health (Initiated and mediated by A Buha) Controversy: Is planetary health the future of global health? (pre-recorded material from P Grosse's colleague to spark the discussion and then mediated by P Grosse and A Buha)
--	--	--	---	---	---