International Workshop

Global Insights on Postpartum: Perspectives from the Social Sciences

December 11, 2023
9 AM – 5 PM

9 AM: Welcome coffee and Opening words from the organizers

09:30 AM – 11:15 AM: Roundtable 1 Policy Perspectives and Postpartum Citizenship

- "The evolving aims of parenting leave policies: from physical recovery to ideal citizenship", Patricia Hamilton*, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, York University

- "Postpartum at the hospital in France: health workers' point of view and mothers' experiences" Pauline Jallon, Anthropology PhD candidate, Centre Norbert-Elias -CNRS/ EHESS

Presentation in French*

- "Stop crying, you are going to make a depressive out of him": Political Post-Partum, Maternal Welfare and Citizenship in France, Anna Lelièvre, London School of Economics and Political Science, MSc (2022).

- "Between Milk and Blood: Thinking Postpartum Among Working-Class Women in Haiti", Rose-Myrlie Joseph, Research Associate CREF, LSCP/Paris University and LADIREP/University of Haiti.

Chair: Chiara Quagliariello (Cems-EHESS)

11:15 – 11:45 AM : COFFEE BREAK

11:45 AM - 1 PM: Roundtable 2 Postpartum Experiences in the Context of Migration

- "Latinx Perinatal Mental Health Experiences and Needs in Silicon Valley, CA" Veronica Miranda, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, Santa Clara

University and Alice Villatoro, Assistant Professor, Department of Public Health, Santa Clara University

- "The 'illusion' of natural approach to childbirth and postpartum experiences" Chiara Quagliariello, Marie Curie Post-doctoral Research Fellow, Cems-Ehess and Maï Le Dû, Assistant Professor, Reproductive Health Department, University of Brest

- "Giving birth far from home: Postpartum experiences of South Asian women living in Île-de-France" Lucia Gentile (video), Postdoctoral research fellow, CN2R/ICM

Chair : Mounia El Kotni (Cermres3)

1 PM – 2:30 PM: BREAK

2:30 PM - 4:30 PM; Roundtable 3 Postpartum Community Health Networks in Action

Opening : "Oli Aloha: A Hawaiian Perspective" Ka'anohi Aipa, Hawaiian cultural practitioner and community leader

- "The role of community-based organizations in safeguarding the well-being of latinx birthgivers during postpartum in the Santa Clara county, San Jose (CA)" Chiara Battaglini, Master student in Anthropology, University of Turin, Italy and Odette Avalos, Director of a community clinic in San Jose, California

- "The First 1000 Days: Navigating Postpartum Depression - Balancing Measurement, Support, and Healing" Love Andrieu, Intrapreneur at the French Ministry of Health and Solidarity (2020-2023).

- "The Parents' Map: A Tool Against Young parents' Isolation" Flavie Pittet, Association le Sel dans le Café, Paris.

Presentation in French*

Chair : Veronica Miranda (Santa Clara University

4:30 PM - 5PM : Final questions and concluding words by the organizers